

As a current Voom HD LLC subscriber, I oppose the sale of Voom's Rainbow-1 satellite to EchoStar(Dishnetwork). The Voom service allows for increased competition and additional programming choices for subscribers. Other services are only providing limited HD programming, the FCC should block the sale to increase competition in the market place, reducing cost to the consumer while adding services.